McGillivray Oct 2^o 1831.

Sir

I recd a letter from you enclosing an Est of John Graham David Graham & David Lear. I have laid upon all the personal and real property of John & David Graham and on the real estate of David Lear. Mr Gos said it was his understanding with you that his personal property ~~was~~ was not to be levied upon as he ~~wished~~ wished to make a bond & sell it & that he intended to apply the proceeds to the payment of this execution, & from appearances about the promises of Mr Gos I should think he was amply good and I should think he intends to do what he says from the kind of man he appears to be. I shall advertise the personal & real property of the Grahams this week you state in your letter that I need not sell the property of Gos, I have laid upon and appraised his real estate and if you think in view of all the circumstances that I had better lay on the personal property of Gos please drop me a line and I will attend to it, I think however he intends to do what he says.

I am Sir Very Respectfully Yours
Lewis Miles
